Letter to Jones & Shields.

St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Dear Sirs: If you want your paint to last as long as that of other house owners in your town is going to last, you should use lead and zinc.

You can mix your own, or buy Devco, as you like. The results will not be the same, however. Devco lead and zinc is ground in oil and thoroughly mixed. Machinery does it. Hand work can't compete with machine-work, either in cost or thoroughness. Mixing by hand is imperfect mixing; and zinc is peculiarly hard to mix; wants grinding.

Lead and oil is honest paint; but less durable. Lead is tender and zinc is tough. The proper mixture ground to gether is better than either alone. French painters use zinc alone; but American painters think it too hard, and mix it with lead.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devco & Co.

We beg to announce that we are making a last offering of Treasury Stock at $4.00 per share. The progress being made at the factory is so very excellent that it will now be but a short time before the stock will be on a dividend basis.

Orders from the different Collar and Cuff factories are coming in much more rapidly than it is possible for the factory to fill them, although they are adding new machinery and increasing the number of employees.

The output is now about four machines per week and over 60 machines are already in operation, each machine earning from $2.00 to $3.00 per day. There is a market in this country alone for some 2000 machines which on a royalty of $2.00 per day will earn enormous dividends, which we confidently expect will begin next year, when the stock will be listed on the Boston Stock Exchange and sell at much higher prices.

Remember Reece Buttonhole stock sold as low as this stock is selling now and when the dividends were approaching sold as high as $25 per share and has since paid nearly 200 per cent. in dividends.
